ABOUT L.A.

LASTARSTATUS.COM

L.A. Warren is a veteran journalist and editor with a distinguished career with major organizations – the Hattiesburg American, The Indianapolis Star and the Houston Chronicle. He also contributed to the New York Times News Service and served in media leadership at Jackson State University. Now, he writes about groundbreaking research at the University of Mississippi Medical Center and leads his own communications platform, LA Star Status (storytelling, branding, outreach).

Warren's powerful faith-based memoir – Be Bold. Be Brave. Believe. Be Blessed. – is inspired by surviving a carjacking and kidnapping, during which he experienced undeniable divine intervention to boldly minister to his captors. The compelling story reflects the power of resilience, faith and unwavering trust in God, who empowers us with confident courage to rise above adversity, fear and uncertainty.

RESILIENCE

When the newspaper doors closed, when budgets were slashed, and when his own life was threatened, L.A. faced moments that could have broken him. Instead, they strengthened him.

If facing the pain of losing a loved one, the weight of a failed relationship, the sting of being let go, or a whisper telling you that you can't rise again, don't believe it.

Discover how to build faith in life's most fragile moments. L.A.'s book will help you stand firm and grow in resilience. You'll understand that your setback is not your ending, but it's the foundation for your comeback.

THE ESCAPE

On a cold February night in 2019, L.A. was abducted at gunpoint and driven down a desolate Mississippi highway. Eerie darkness swallowed the road, and the silence grew heavier, portending evil ahead. What should have become tragic became a divine testimony.
